A Life in Archaeology and Glass: Honoring David Whitehouse (1941-2013) A Symposium in Memory of David Whitehouse March 13-15, 2014

www.cmog.org/event/life-archaeology-and-glass-honoring-david-whitehouse-1941-2013

This symposium honors the life and work of our former executive director and friend David Whitehouse, and celebrates his scholarship in glass, ceramics, and archaeology.

The program begins with a free, public keynote lecture at 6 pm by Paul Roberts, senior curator, head of the Roman Collections, Greek and Roman Department at The British Museum. Roberts will speak on themes related to his 2013 British Museum exhibition "Life and Death in Pompeii and Herculaneum".

The next two days will be filled with lectures, reminiscences, and time with many of David's colleagues and friends. Preliminary program includes these speakers and demonstrators:

Simon Cottle, departmental director of continental ceramics and glass, Bonhams, London

Ian Freestone, professor of archaeological materials and technology, University of London

Yael Gorin-Rosen, head of the glass department, Israel Antiquities Authority

William Gudenrath, historian and artist, Corning Museum of Glass

Stephen Koob, chief conservator, Corning Museum of Glass

Rosa Barovier Mentasti, independent scholar

Lisa Pilosi, conservator, Metropolitan Museum of Art

Jenny Price, Professor Emeritus, Durham University

Susan Rossi-Wilcox, independent scholar

Amy Schwartz, director of The Studio and education, Corning Museum of Glass

St. John Simpson, assistant keeper, department of the Middle East, The British Museum

Lino Tagliapietra, glass artist

Astrid van Giffen, assistant conservator, Corning Museum of Glass

Rachel Ward, independent scholar

Karol Wight, executive director and curator of ancient and Islamic glass, Corning Museum of Glass

Mark Wypyski, materials scientist, Metropolitan Museum of Art

The program will begin on Thursday at 6 pm and conclude with a dinner Saturday evening. All activities will take place at The Corning Museum of Glass.

Cost to attend is $ 150. Please RSVP to Tina Snow at 438.5269 or SnowTS@cmog.org.
